

IS THIS YOU? SHIFTY SHAWN

If you let your hands come off home row to shift for capital letters, you have to get them back into position again to continue typing. That's wasted motion. Eliminate it and your speed will increase. When shifting, stretch your little finger down to the shift key, hold it down while typing the capital letter with the other hand, and then bring that finger back to home row.